Developed in accordance with the following FIG regulations:

- ACRO Code of Points 2026 – 2028
- ACRO Youth & Junior Rules 2026-2028
- 2026-2028 ACRO Table of Difficulty
- The current competition regulations of the FIG and SVAT apply

* Specific requirements for exercise composition, evaluation, age categories, eligibility to start and the conduct of national competitions. The basis for this is the FIG Code of Points for acrobatic gymnastics and the World Age Group Competition Rules. Unless otherwise stipulated in these Regulations, the FIG Rules shall apply.

6. REFEREE

- Only judges who have a current national or international licence are entitled to judge.
- Each club/performance centre must register at least one judge.
- For teams with more than eight (8) registered groups, a second judge must be provided.
- The registered judges must be available for the entire competition and not only for the categories in which athletes of the club compete.
- The judging obligation is only considered to be fulfilled if the required minimum number of judges is reported in each competition session.
- Judges can be exchanged between clubs/performance centres, but a judge may only judge for one club/performance centre per competition.

- If the judging obligation is not fulfilled, the Organiser is entitled to recruit a judge and to charge the resulting costs (transport, accommodation) to the club that does not meet the minimum. In addition, an expense fine of CHF 250 will be charged.
- The maximum costs that can be charged are 500 CHF. The Organiser will endeavour to recruit substitute judges at reasonable costs.
